

This query was not overwhelmingly responded to at all. However, there is a clear consensus not exceed 4 stories, with most residents drawing a line

Suggestions and Concerns Regarding Building Height

Suggestions	Concerns
If you Want the Buildings Any Higher, We Should Make it like Hyde Park	Four Stories?
Uniform Building Height	Buildings Would Look Imposing Because the Streets are Narrow
Should Only Be Allowed to Be 10 - 15 Feet Higher than Current	Don't Block Anyone's Views of the River
Not Higher Than 6 Stories Tall	Taller Buildings Would Diminish the Significance of Downtown
Maintain the Current Scale of Development	I Don't Want Any Skyscrapers - No Taller than 4 Stories
Keep Building Height at 3 Stories	Everything is Fine, Changing it Wouldn't be Good
No Higher than Current	How are we Going to Squeeze More into Downtown
Not More than Three Stories Tall	Now Higher Than Now!
No Taller than Now	Low Please
Keep the 3 - 4 Story Range	Don't Need to Go Any Higher
Go Higher = 5	Shouldn't Be Any Taller
Keep Them Similar in Height	I Don't Understand How We are Going to Put all This Development in One Space
No More than 3 Stories	No Change Needed
Try to Compliment Current Buildings, Rather than Overpower them	Keep it Reasonable
Don't Build Higher than the Tree Line	Sure Don't Want Anything Taller than 3 Stories
Stay Within 3 Stories	Nothing Over 2 Stories
Max 2 Stories	2 Stories Max
I Would Love to See Multi-story Buildings With Office/Residential on the Top - This Seems Like Where we Should Go	I Like the Continuity of the City as it is Now
Keep it The Same Height
Keep it Consistent
Don't Build Higher than 3 Stories
No Higher Than it is
Try To Keep it Consistently Low
Match the Low Buildings that Are there Now
Limited to 4 Stories
Keep It Small And Not Modern
Don't Build Anything Taller than The Works
Maximum Of 6 Stories Tall
Keep the Old Town Feel
Build No Taller than 2 or 3 Stories
No More than 2 Stories
Keep It Low

No More than 3 Stories
Keep a village Feel
Make a 2 Story Limit
3 Stories Tops

nsus that any potential new buildings should at 3 floors.

Height

Other

None

Small Stacks is a Great Idea

Plans Look Appropriate

There Should be More Businesses that Cater to Bikers

Some Buildings Could be Really Tall - 4 stories

3 - 4 is Not too Much

Consistency of Architecture

No Comment

None

Looks Fine

None

This isn't Much of an Issue

No Comment

Three Stories

Keep it As Is

No High Rises